

I come from Heuin to Tell

Martin Luther, "Vom Himmel Hoch"
tr. John Wedderburn (c. 1500-1556)

"BALULALOW,"
Medieval Scottish Melody

1. I come from hev - in for to tell The best no - well - is that e'er be - fell, To
2. This day to yow is borne ane Childe, Of Ma - rie meike and Vir - gine myl - de; That
3. It is the Lord Christ, God and man, He will do - e for you quhat he can; Him -
4. Ze sall him find but marke or wring, Full sem - pill in ane cri - be ly - ing; So
5. Let us re - joy - ce and bee blyth, And with the hyr - des go - e full swyth, And

1. yow thir ty - thynges trew I bring, And I will of them say and sing, And
2. blis - sit barne, bin - ing and kynde, Sall yow re - joyce baith heart and mynd, Sall
3. selfe your Sa - viour hee will bee, Fra sinne and hell to make zow free, Fra
4. ly - is hee quhilk zow hes wrocht, And all this war - ld made of nocht, And
5. see quhat God of his grace hes done Throw Christ to bring us to his throne, Throw

1. I will of them say and sing.
2. yow re - joyce baith heart and mynd.
3. sinne and hell to make zow free.
4. all this war - ld made of nocht.
5. Christ to bring us to his throne.