

Ad Natalem Domini

The Carol of King Canute

"DOXFORD," 664.6664.

Charles William Stubbs (1845-1912)

Richard Runciman Terry (1865-1938)

1

1. O mer-ry rang the hymn A-cross the fen - lands dim, O joy the
2. From E-ly Min - ster then Rang out a-cross the fen, O joy the
3. It was the Christ-mas morn Where-on the Child was born, O joy the
4. It was the win - ter cold Where-on the tale was told, O joy the
5. The shep-herds in a row Knelt by the cra-dle low, O joy the
6. Glo - ry to God on high, Who bring-eth men a - nigh, O glo - ri -

6

1. day! When Knit the king sailed by. "O row, my men, more nigh And
2. day! The good monks' mer - ry song That rolled its aisles a - long, And
3. day! On li - ly banks a - mong, Where fra - grant flowers do throng For
4. day! What hap did then be - fall To men and wo - men all From
5. day! And told the an - gel song They heard their sheep a - mong When
6. a! And war's black death did ban, And peace on earth be - gan, And

11

1. hear that ho - ly cry: Sing glo - ri - a!
2. ec-hoed far and long, Sing glo - ri - a!
3. mai-den poe-sies sprung? Sing glo - ri - a!
4. that poor cat-tle stall, O glo - ri - a!
5. all that heaven-ly throng Sang glo - ri - a!
6. Christ the Word made Man, Sing joy the day!