

Christ is born! Exalt his Name!

Χριστος γεννεται δοξασατε

St. Cosmas of Maiuma (8th. Cent.),
tr. John Mason Neale (1818-1866)

"Nazareth," 7.7.7.11.11.8.
Samuel Sebastian Wesley (1810-1876)

1. Christ is born! ex - alt his Name! Christ from heaven! his love pro -
2. Man in God's own im - age made, Man, by Sa - tan's wiles be -
3. For the Ma - ker, when his foe Wrought the crea - ture death and
4. He, the Wis - dom, Word, and Might! God the Son, and Light of

1. claim! Christ on earth! for us he came! Sing to the Lord, O world, with ex-ul - ta - tion; Break forth in
2. trayed, Man on whom cor-rupt-ion preyed, Shut out from hope of Life and of Sal - va - tion, To - day Christ
3. woe, Bowed the heavens and came be - low, And in the Vir - gin's womb his dwell - ing mak - ing, Be - came True
4. Light! Un - dis - cov - ered by the sight Of earth - ly mon - arch or in - fer - nal spi - rit, In - car - nate

15
1. glad thanks - giv - ing ev - ery na - tion, For he hath tri - umphed glor - rious - ly!
2. mak - eth him a new cre - a - tion, For he hath tri - umphed glor - rious - ly!
3. Man! our ve - ry na - ture tak - ing, For he hath tri - umphed glor - rious - ly!
4. was that we should heaven in - her - it, For he hath tri - umphed glor - rious - ly!