

St. Basil

Traditional Greek carol
tr. Aristides R. Phoutrides

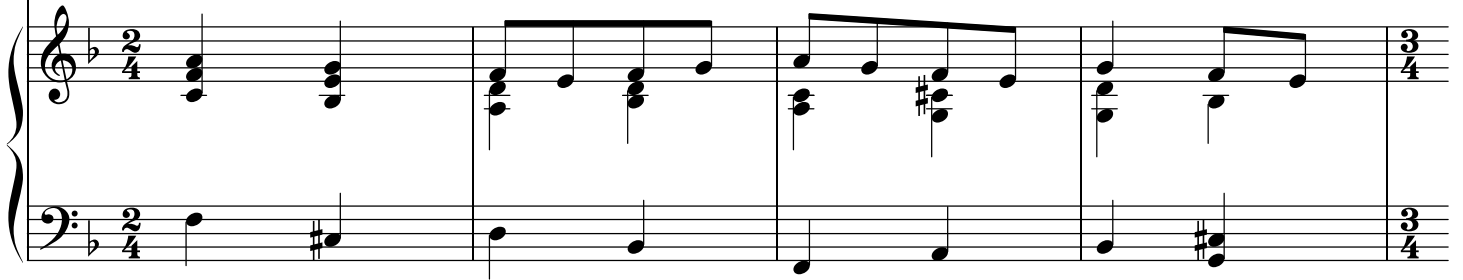

New Year's Song

Traditional Greek carol
arr. Frederick S. Converse

1

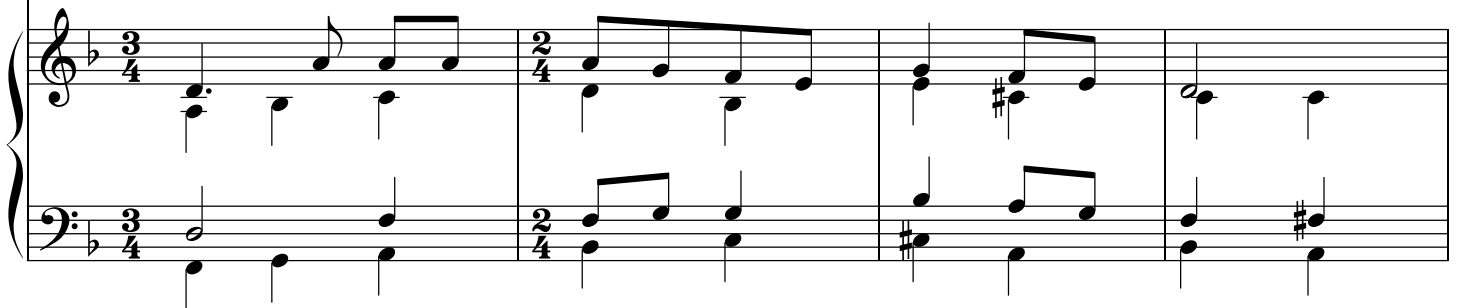

1. St. Ba - sil comes and pass - es
2. He car - ries pen and pa - per
3. The pen, it wrote and scrib - bled
4. "A new month's eve, a New Year's
5. "The New Year fol - lows on Christ's

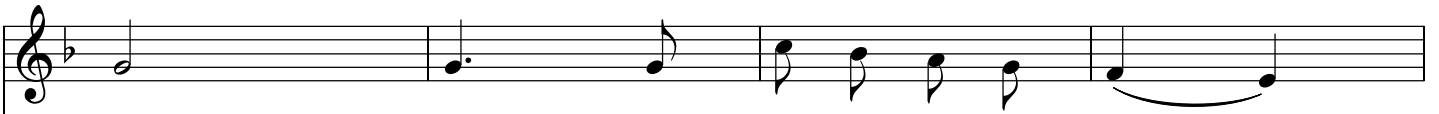

5

1. by, And scorns us for no rea - son why;
2. white, And su - gar can - dies sweet and bright;
3. down: He told our for - tunes with a frown.
4. Eve, Sweet rose - ma - ry, I beg your leave;
5. birth: So ho - ly Christ who walks the earth

1. He comes from Cae - sar - e - a town.
 2. He brings his pen and ink for writ - ing.
 3. And then the pa - per spoke a tri - fle;
 4. Joy be your lot the whole year round,
 5. May bless you, ev - ery girl and boy.

1. Miss - tress, bring, Miss - tress, bring us some - thing down.
 2. You should see, you should see me in the fighting.
 3. Yes we swear, yes we swear by our gold rifle.
 4. May your house, may your house be ho - ly ground.
 5. And fill all, and fill all good hearts with joy."