

Be merry all, be merry all

Carol for the poor

William Robert Spencer (1769-1834)

"DITCHLING CAROL"
Peter Parsons (1825-1901)

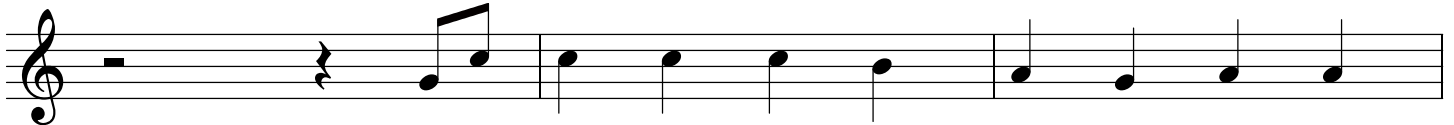

1. Be mer - ry all, be mer - ry all, With
3. When you, with vel - vets man - tled o'er, De - fy
5. When gen - 'rous wine your care con - trols, And

1. hol - ly dress the fes - tive all, Pre - pare the song, the
3. fy De - cem - ber's tem - pest's roar, Oh, spare one gar - ment
5. gives new joy to hap - piest souls, Oh, spare one gob - let

1. feast, the ball, To wel - come mer - ry Christ - mas.
3. from your store, To clothe the poor at Christ - mas.
5. from your bowls, To cheer the poor at Christ - mas.

2. And, oh! re - mem - ber, gent - les gay, To
4. When you the cost - ly ban - quet deal To
6. So shall each note of mirth ap - pear More

2. you who bask in for - tune's ray, The year is all a
4. guests, who ne - ver fa - mine feel, Oh, spare one mor - sel
6. sweet to heaven than praise or prayer, And an - gels, in their

2. ho - li - day -- The poor have on - ly Christ - mas.
4. from your meal, To feed the poor at Christ - mas.
6. ca - rols there, Shall bless the poor at Christ - mas.

