

'Neath the stars that shone so bright

"MAYLAND," 7.7.7.7.8.7.7.
Matthew Cooke (1761-1829)

Robert Hall Baynes (1831-1895)

1

1. 'Neath the stars that shone so bright Shep-herds watched their flocks by night. Sud - den - ly, in
2. Born this day of Da - vid's line Now be - hold the Babe di - vine; In rude clothes he
3. May we all with heart and voice Still in Beth - le - hem re - joice; Thi - ther by the

6

1. glo - rious guise, Came an an - gel from the skies, Stood be - side them, did not chide them,
2. lays his head, In a man - ger for his bed, Lord all ho - ly, laid so low - ly,
3. bright star led To the house of liv - ing bread; Chant the sto - ry of his glo - ry,

11

1. Told the ti - dings glad and free, "Christ In - car - nate deigns to be."
2. Who from high - est realm of heaven Stoops that man may be for - given.
3. Till his ma - jes - ty we see At his last E - pi - pha - ny.