

Beauteous plant of high renown

Alfred Bourne (1799-1836)

NARARETH, 7.7.7.7.D.,
R. H. Cubitt (fl. 1840)

1. Beau - tious plant of high re - nown, Ris - ing
2. Lo! I see thy ver - dant leaves Soft their
3. Bend - ing o'er the sil - ver flood, End - less

1. from a bar - ren soil; Fol - iage fair thy
2. heal - ing dews di - stil; Earth the pre - cious
3. time's trans - lu - cent stream, Bears the breeze thy

1. boughs shall crown, Rich - er fruit - age pen - dant
2. balm re - ceives, Life and joy the na - tions
3. sweets a - broad, Thy bright hues on wa - ters

1. smile; Deep thy roots shal pierce be - low,
2. fill; Health thy wound - ed spi - rit cheers,
3. gleam: Rise! in rich - er fo - liage, rise!

1. High thy spread - ing bran - ches rise, Frag - rant,
 2. Tast - ing thy am - bro - sial fruit; Bloom - ing
 3. Beau - teous fruit of high re - nown, Bid thy

1. bright thy blos - soms blow, Waft - ing in - cense
 2. E - den re - ap - pears When thy boughs lux -
 3. branch - es touch the skies, The wide earth thy

1. to the skies.
 2. ur - iant shoot.
 3. sha - dow crown.