

The long-expected morn

Thomas Kelly (1769-1855)

"ARTHUR'S SEAT," 6.6.6.6.8.8

Sir John Goss (1800-1880)

1. The long - ex - pec - ted morn Has dawned up - on the earth; The
2. Now sing of peace di - vine, Of grace to guil - ty man; No
3. Give praise to God on high, With an - gels round his throne; Give

1. Sa - viour Christ is born, And an - gels sing his birth: We'll join the bright se -
2. wis - dom, Lord, but thine Could form the won-drous plan: Where peace and righ-teous -
3. praise to God with joy, Give praise to God a - lone: 'Tis meet his saints their

1. ra - phic throng, We'll share their joys and swell their song.
2. ness embrace, And jus - tice goes a - long with grace.
3. song should raise, And give the Sa - viour end - less praise.