

Now Christmas is Come

Collected from Samuel Willett in Cuckfield, Sussex

by Lucy E. Broadwood, 29 May 1891

1. Now Christ-mas is come let us sing and be glad, For sure - ly it
2. Right well we can all to this ques - tion re - ply; The birth of our
3. In love and com - pas - sion to all here be - low He was born in
4. Come then one and all, let our voi - ces be heard, In prais - ing our

1. is not the time to be sad; But why should we now with ad - dit - ion - al
2. Sa - viour who came from on high; In time of our glad - ness, the cause of our
3. na - ture to save us from woe; In life was our teach - er, ex - am - ple and
4. God and pro - claim - ing his word; The an - gel glad ti - dings of joy brings from

1. joy, Our voi - ces un - ite in such pleas - ing em - ploy!
2. mirth, He gave up his pow - er to bring peace on earth.
3. guide, In death our Re - deem - er, as for us he died.
4. heaven, To us both a Son and a Sa - viour is given.