

Sons of men, behold from far

INNOCENTS, 7.7.7.7.

Charles Wesley (1707-1788)

Medieval French, arr. The Parish Choir, 1850.

1. Sons of men be - hold from far, Hail the long-ex-pec-ted star: Ja - cob's
2. Mild it shines on all be - neath, Pierc-ing through the shades of death; Scatter-ing
3. Na - tions all, re - mote and near, Haste to see your God ap - pear; Haste, for
4. There be - hold the Day-spring rise, Pour-ing light up - on your eyes See it
5. Sing, ye morn - ing stars, a - gain, God de scends on earth to reign, Deigns for

1. star that gilds the night, Guides be - wil - dered na - ture right.
2. er - ror's wide - spread night, Kind - ling dark - ness in - to light.
3. him your hearts pre - pare, Meet him man - i - fest - ed here.
4. chase the shades a - way, Shin - ing to the per - fect day.
5. man his life t'em - ploy, Shout, ye sons of God for joy.