

The Cornish Bells

Charles William Stubbs (1845-1912)

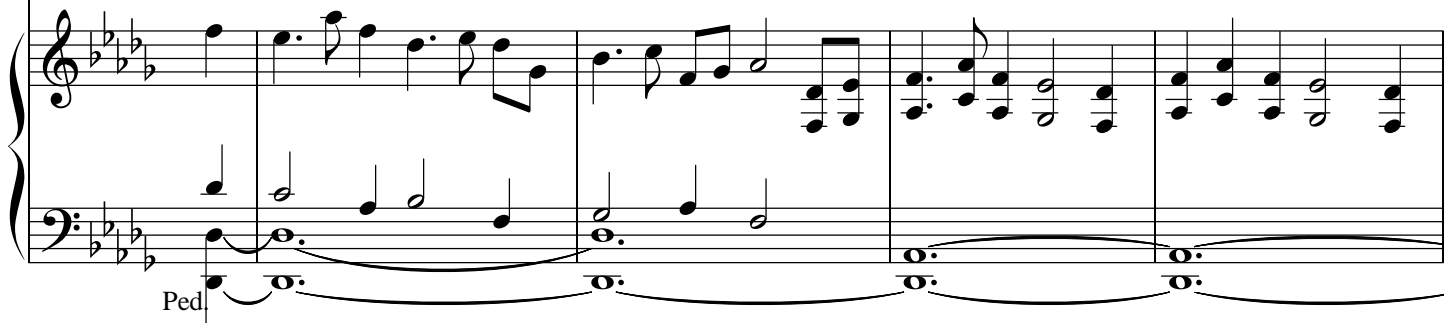

Thomas Tertius Noble (1867-1953)

Trebles only.

1

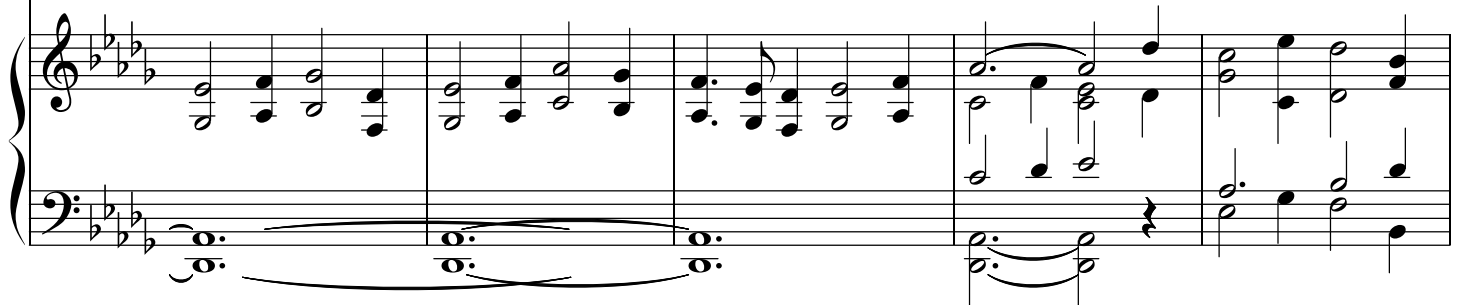

1. O
2. High
3. O
4. Ring
5. As

5

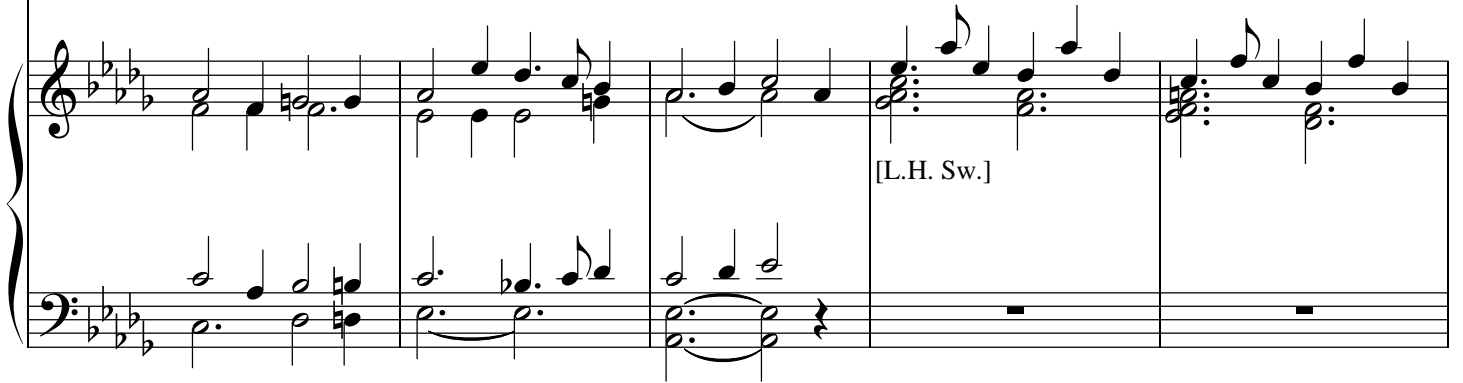

- | | | |
|--------------------------|--|--------------------------|
| 1. mer - ry ring the | Christ-mas bells ac - cross the west - ern land, | From Launces-ton town to |
| 2. o'er the ridge of | Bod-min Moor, Grey Row - tor keep - eth guard, | His age - long crown of |
| 3. hark the bells of | Lis-keard, how they call the bells of Looe, | St. Win-now and Bo - |
| 4. glad-some bells, ring | peal - ing bells, from Fal - mouth Har - bour wide | To where St. Ma - ry's |
| 5. by the mys - tic | star of old the ma - gian kings were led, | To ho - ming boats, on |

1. Mi-chael's Mount, from Bude to Sen - nan sand, The joy - ous ec - ho sweeps a - long far
 2. gra-nite crag by wind and storm is scarred; But here, as once in Beth - le - hem, the
 3. con-noc and Lan - sal - los and Du - loe, Till all the up - land pul - ses with the
 4. Min-ster stands a - bove the Tru - ro tide. Ring Christ-mas bells of Rose-land, in your
 5. Christ-mas Eve, by lights of Li - zard Head, And fish - er lads, safe home at last from

1. spa - ces by the sea, And church bells an - swer church bells with their "Glo-ria Do - mi -
 2. Christmas stars shine bright, And moor-land men are wen - ding far to church on Christ-mas
 3. glo-rious hymn of joy, As Tal - land calls to Lan-reath and Lan - te - glos an-swers
 4. mad - dest, mer - riest glee, From Pro - bus to Pen - ke - vil, from Lam - or - ran to the
 5. pe - rils of the sea, Give in-cense of brave hearts to great their Lord's E - pi - pha -

1

Full.

1. ne!" O Cor - nish bells ring far, ring free, Ring "Glo - ria ti - bi, Do - mi - ne!"
2. night. O Bod - min bells ring far, ring free, Ring "Glo - ria ti - bi, Do - mi - ne!"
3. Fowey. O Lis - keard bells ring far, ring free, Ring "Glo - ria ti - bi, Do - mi - ne!"
4. sea. O Tru - ro bells ring far, ring free, Ring "Glo - ria ti - bi, Do - mi - ne!"
5. ny. O Kev - erne bells ring far, ring free, Ring "Glo - ria ti - bi, Do - mi - ne!"

Great.

Largamente.

ff