

Hark! What Music fills Creation

Traditional Cornish Carol

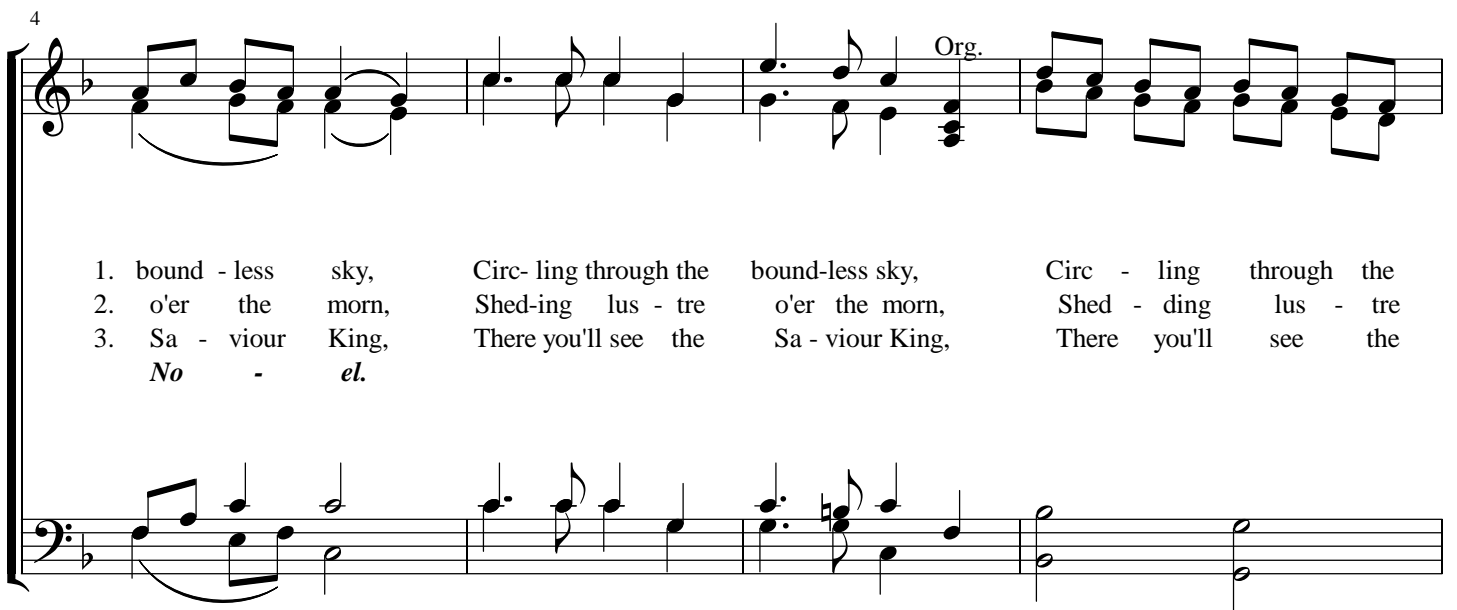

Robert Hainsworth Heath (1841-1911)

1

1. Hark! What mu - sic fills cre - a - tion, Circ - ling through the
2. See them from the realms of glo - ry, Shed - ding lus - tre
3. Go to Beth - l'em: in a man - ger, There you'll see the
No - el, No - el, No - el,

4

1. bound - less sky, Circ - ling through the bound-less sky, Circ - ling through the
2. o'er the morn, Shed - ing lus - tre o'er the morn, Shed - ding lus - tre
3. Sa - viour King, There you'll see the Sa - viour King, There you'll see the
No - el.

8

1. bound - less sky, Shep-herds, filled with con-ster - na - tion, Hear se - ra - phic har - mo - ny,
 2. o'er the morn, While they chant the won-drous sto - ry Of the great Mes - si - ah born,
 3. Sa - viour King, Come and praise the heaven-ly Stran-ger, Make the whole cre - a - tion ring,

13

1. Shep-herds, filled with con - ster - na - tion, Hear se - ra - phic har - mo - ny, har - mo - ny.
 2. While they chant the won - drous sto - ry Of the great Mes - si - ah born, - si - ah born.
 3. Come and praise the heaven - ly Sa - viour, Make the whole cre - a - tion ring, - a - tion ring.
No - el, No - el.