

Star of the East! whose beacon light

18th. Century (?) West Country carol

William Jackson (1730-1780)

1

1. Star of the East! whose bea-con light A beam on Beth - lehem threw, And thi-ther by that
3. Hail thou, whose sil-very ra-diance led Those ma - gian chiefs to bring Their choi-cest gifts, in
5. Hail thou, ap-poin - ted to ad - orn The ri - sing King of heaven, The pro-mised Child to

6

1. won-derous sight A - ra - bia's sa - ges drew, A - ra - bia's sa - ges drew. 2 On
3. wor - ship spread Be - fore Ju - dae - a's King, Be - fore Ju - dae - a's King. 4. That
5. Ju - dah born, The Son to Is - rael given, The Son to Is - rael given; 6. In

11

2. thee in thought we love to gaze In west-ern climes a - far, And think on thy mys -
4. glo - rious Sun, whose har - bin - ger Thy light was made to shine, And like the pill - ared
6. whom the peace-ful em - pire sealed Should more and more in - crease; In him the migh - ty

16

2. myst - erious rays, Thou love - ly east - ern star.
4. flame to bear A - loft sal - va - tion's sign.
6. God re - vealed, In him the Prince of Peace.