

Processional Hymn

Laus et Gloria in Excelsis

"SARUM," 10.10.10.8

Samuel Childs Clarke (1921-1903)

Joseph Barnby (1838-1896)

1

1. Al - migh - ty Ru - ler of the world to thee,
2. All laud and hon - our un - to thee be - long,
3. The mul - ti - tude of isles that on thee wait,
4. And they who rest in pa - ra - dise, u - ite
5. And all the heaven - ly host be - yond the sky,

5

1. A - bi - ding ev - er in e - ter - ni - ty,
2. Of thee we sing these earth - ly courts a - mong,
3. Do raise in lof - ty or in low - ly state.
4. Their strains with ours, a - mid those realms of light,
5. An - gel and se - raph with arch - an - gel vie

9

1. From us and all thy Church asc - ri - bed be Praise and
2. Thine be the tri - bute of our fes - tal song -- Praise and
3. Their meed of song with - in thy tem - ple gate -- Praise and
4. To tell of all thy mer - cy and thy might -- Praise and
5. Thine hal - lowed Name, O Lord, to glo - ri - fy -- Praise and

The musical score is written for a single melodic line on a treble clef staff. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 8/8. The melody consists of four measures. The first measure contains a whole note chord of G2 and B2. The second measure contains a quarter note G2, a dotted quarter note A2, and an eighth note B2. The third measure contains a quarter note C3, a dotted quarter note D3, and an eighth note E3. The fourth measure contains a whole note F3. The lyrics 'glo - ry in the high - est.' are written below the staff, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across measures.

6. Whene'er we tread thy courts, may all around
Serve to uplift our souls, while sight and sound
Bid us reflect we stand on holy ground --
Praise and glory in the highest.
7. Of old thou didst in glowing light appear,
When foemen to thine Israel drew near,
Inspiring these with faith and those with fear --
Praise and glory in the highest.
8. So shield thy servants from temptation now,
And with thy "Fire or Love" our souls endow,
As we before thy mercy-seat do bow --
Praise and glory in the highest.
9. Illumine with thy blessed Spirit's rays
Our hearts, and tune our lips to swell thy praise,
So shall we render on these holy days
Praise and glory in the highest.
10. And when our festal strains of earth are o'er,
To thee, O Triune God, may we outpour
With all thy Church triumphant evermore
Praise and glory in the highest.