

While shepherds were feeding their flocks in the field

John Moreton of Birmingham (1764-1804) Traditional Dorsetshire carol tune

harm. Edwin P. Haworth (fl. 1900)

1

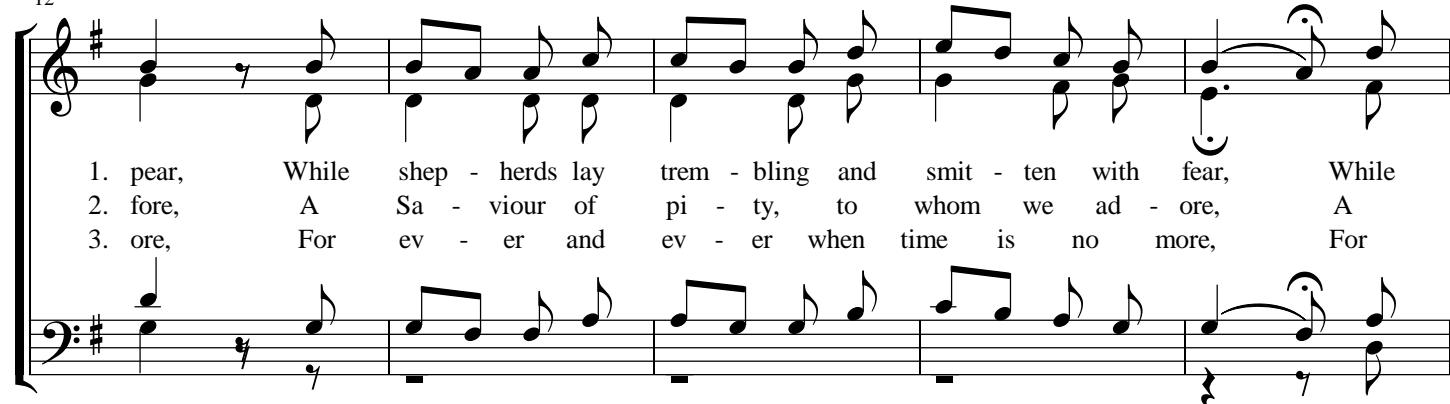

1. While shep - herds were feed - ing their flocks in the field, The birth of a
2. For - bear to be fear - ful, ye have rea - son to sing. Re - joice and be
3. He came to re - deem us from guilt and from sin, In love he would

6

1. Sa - viour to them was re - vealed; And an - gels as - sem - bling in clouds did ap -
2. cheer - ful, glad ti - dings we bring, For born in the ci - ty of Da - vid's there
3. have us new lives to be - gin, In love each be - liev - er shall glad - ly ad -

12

1. pear, While shep - herds lay trem - bling and smit - ten with fear, While
2. fore, A Sa - viour of pi - ty, to whom we ad - ore, A
3. ore, For ev - er and ev - er when time is no more, For

17

1. shep - herds lay trem - bling and smit - ten with fear.
2. Sa - viour of pi - ty, to whom we ad - ore.
3. ev - er and ev - er, when time is no more.