2. Grieve not, vain man, who mortal art,
That thou to earth must fall;
It was his portion, 'twas the part
Of him who made us all.
3. Himself he humbled to the grave,
Made flesh like us to show,
That we as certainly shall have,
A resurrection too.
4. Then with perpetual hymns let Christ,
Who from the dead was raised,
With Father and the Holy Ghost,
Eternally be praised.
