

Hark! bright angels sweetly sing

A carol for Easter

Richard Robert Chope (1830-1928)

Herbert Stephen Irons (1834-1905)

1. Hark! bright an - gels sweet - ly sing In the glo - rious East - er
2. Vain - ly sol - diers tried to hold Ho - ly Je - sus in the
3. For on this day, Je - sus said, He would rise in tri - umph
4. We must die as Je - sus died, But we hope with him to
5. Al - le - lu - ia! ev - er - more Al - le - lu - ia! an - gels

1. sky, How from death the Lord our King Rose hence-forth no
2. grave, Sealed the stone, as they were told At the en - trance
3. high, Rise all glo - rious from the dead, Clothed with light and
4. rise, -- And with bo - dies glo - ri - fied, Reign with him be -
5. sing Al - le - lu - ia! we ad - ore Thee, O Christ, our

1. more to die, Rose hence - forth no more to die.
2. to the cave, At the en - trance to the cave.
3. ma - jes - ty, Clothed with light and ma - jes - ty.
4. yond the skies, Reign with him be - yond the skies.
5. God and King! Thee, O Christ, our God and King!