

Holly & Ivy

Eugene Field (1850-1895)

IN NATALI DOMINI, Nürnberg Gesangbuch, 1544; harm. George Herbert Palmer (1846-1926)

1 Hol - ly stand-eth in ye house When that No - ël draw-eth near; Clamb'r-ing o - ver
2 "Sis - ter Hol - ly," I - vy quoth, "What is that with-in you see? To and fro
3 "Sis - ter I - vy," Hol - ly quoth, "Bright-ly burns the yule-log here, And love brings
4 "Sis - ter Hol - ly," I - vy quoth, "With fair mu - sic comes ye Morn, And a - far
5 Hol - ly stand-eth in ye house When that No - ël draw-eth near; Clamb'r-ing o - ver

1 yon-der door, I - vy stand-eth ev - er - more; Ev - er - more at ye door
2 doth ye glow Of ye yule-log flick'r-ing go; Would its warmth did cher - ish me!
3 beaut-eous things, While a guard-ian an - gel sings To the babes that slum-ber near;
4 burns ye Star Where ye wond'r-ing shep-herds are, And the Shep-herd King is born:
5 yon-der door, I - vy stand-eth ev - er - more; And to them that right - ly hear,

1 Stand-eth I - vy shiv'r - ing sore, In ye night wind bleak and drear.
2 Where thou bid - est it is warm; I am shak - en of ye storm."
3 But, O I - vy tell me now, What with-out there see-est thou?"
4 'Peace on earth, good will to men,' An - gels cry, and cry a - gain."
5 Each one speak - eth of ye love That out - pour - eth from a - bove.
