| 6 | Did'st thou see?    | Shep - herd - ess, aught fur-ther    | Did'st thou   |

1 thou? From the sta-ble yon-der, Where be-fore my sight
 2 thou? There with-in the man-ger Lay a lit-tle child,
 3 he? [Answer:] Fair-er than the moon is, Fair-er than the sun,
 4 see? Yes, his fa-ther Jo-seph, God-fa-ther St. John;
 5 see? Yes, the ass and ox-en With sweet breath and mild,
 6 see? Yes, three lit-tle an-gels Come from heav'n a-bove,

1 I be-held a won-der that took place this night.
 2 Fresh the straw be-neath him ten-der-ly was piled.
 3 Ne'er up-on the earth here, Saw I such a sight.
 4 And his mo-ther Ma-ry Nursed her lit-tle son.
 5 Stand-ing there be-fore him, Warmed the lit-tle child.
 6 Sing-ing hymns and prais-es To the God of Love.
