

A Carol for Saint Hugh of Lincoln's Day

November 17

From "The Shoemaker's Holiday"

Thomas Dekker (c. 1570-1614)

"Cobbler's Jig"

Playford's "Dancing Master" (1679)

1

1. Cold's the wind, and wet's the rain, Saint Hugh be our good speed;
2. Troll the bowl, the nut - brown bowl, And here, kind mate, to thee!

5

1. Ill is the wea-ther that bring-eth no gain, Nor helps good hearts in need.
2. Let's sing a dirge for Saint Hugh's soul, And down it mer - ri - ly. Hey

CHORUS:

8

down a down, hey down a down; Hey der - ry der - ry down a down.

12

Ho! well done, To me let come, Ring com - pass, gen - tle joy.