

Through the creatures thou hast made

James Clerk Maxwell (1831-1879)

Johann Anastasius Freylinghausen (1670-1739)

1

1. Through the crea-tures thou hast made Show the bright-ness of thy glo-ry, Be e - ter - nal
2. Teach me so thy words to read, That my faith -- new strength ac - cru-ing -- May from world to
3. Give me love a - right to trace Thine to ev - er - y - thing cre - a - ted, Preach - ing to a

6

1. truth dis - played In their sub - stance tran - si - to - ry, Till green earth and
2. world pro - ceed, Wis - dom's fruit - ful search pur - su - ing; Till thy truth my
3. ran - somed race, By thy mer - cy re - no - va - ted, Till with all thy

10

1. o - cean hoa - ry, Mas - sy rock and ten - der blade, Tell the same un -
2. mind im - bu - ing, I pro - claim th'e - ter - nal creed, Oft the glo - rious
3. full - ness sa - ted I be - hold thee face to face, And with ar - dour

14

1. end - ing sto - ry -- "We are truth in form ar - rayed."
2. theme re - new - ing, God our God is Lord in - deed.
3. un - a - ba - ted Sing the glo - ries of thy grace.