

Awake our souls and let us sing

Noted from James Lake (aet.84) of Dummer, near Basingstoke, Hants, by Charles Gamblin, August 1906, and edited by Dr. George B. Gardiner

1. A - wake our souls and let us sing The
2. All on this morn the bless - ed Child, Born
3. Be - times up - on this glo - rious morn, When

1. prai-ses of our heaven - ly King. In sac - red hymns and god - ly mirth,
2. of a Vir-gin meek and mild; And all our souls for to set free
3. Je-sus Christ our Lord was born; From heaven's high court the an - gels sing

1. To ce - le - brate our Sa - viour's birth, To ce - le - brate, to ce - le - brate, to
2. From Sa - tan that great en - e - my, From Sa - tan, from Sa - tan, from Sa - tan,
3. The prai - ses of our heaven-ly King, The prai-ses, the prai - ses, the prai - ses

1. ce - le - brate, to ce - le - brate our Sa-viour's birth
2. from Sa - tan, from Sa-tan that great en - e - my.
3. the prai - ses, the prai - ses of our heaven - ly King.