

Job

Come all you worthy Christians

Traditional Hampshire carol

George B. Gardiner Collection, noted from William Smith and William Alexander

1. Come all you wor - thy Chris - tians that
2. Now Job he was a pa - tient man a
3. So, poor I am con - tent - ed, no
4. Come all you wor - thy peo - ple, that

1. dwells with - in this land, That spends your time in
2. rich man in the east, But he was brought to
3. rich - es do I crave, For they all end in
4. are so ve - ry poor, Re - mem - ber how poor

1. ri - ot - ing, re - mem - ber you're but men, Be
2. po - ver - ty, his sor - rows did in - crease; He
3. va - ni - ty on this side of the grave. There's
4. La - za - us lay at the rich men's door, Beg -

1. watch - ful of your lat - ter end, be rea - dy when you're
2. bore them with great pa - tience, and ne - ver did re -
3. ma - ny rose in rich - es, their glass will soon run
4. ging for the crumbs of bread that from the ta - ble

1. called, There's ma - ny chan - ges in this world, some
2. pine; He al - ways trus - ted in the Lord, and
3. out, No rich - es they brought in this world, nor
4. fell, The scrip - ture now in - forms us, he

1. ri - ses and some falls.
2. soon got rich a - gain.
3. none they can take out.
4. doth in hea - ven dwell.