

The Angel said to Jeseoph Mild

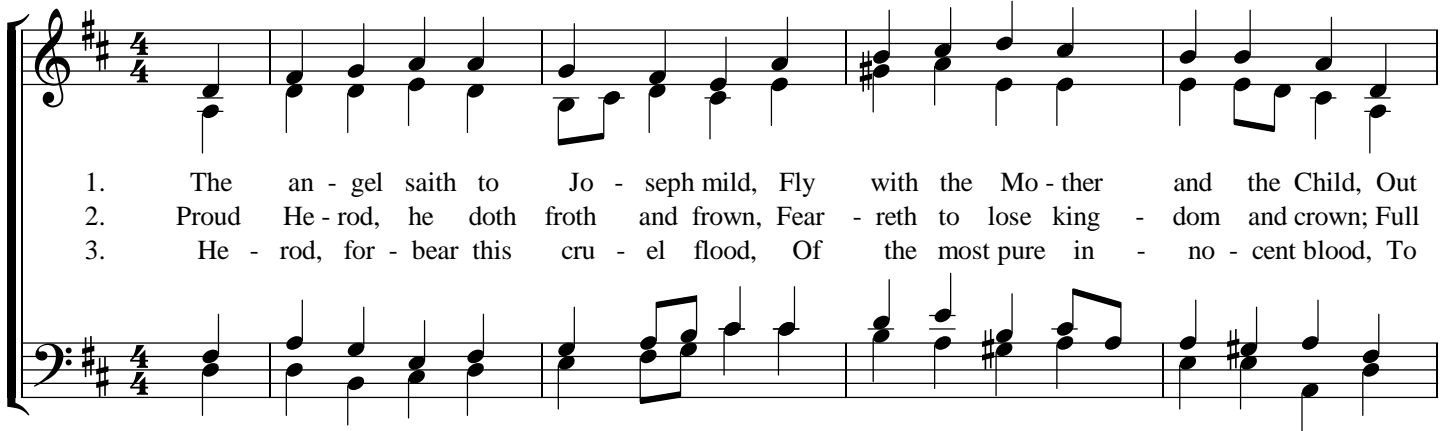

The Flight into Egypt

Luke Waddinge (1684)

"EISENACH", 88.88.88

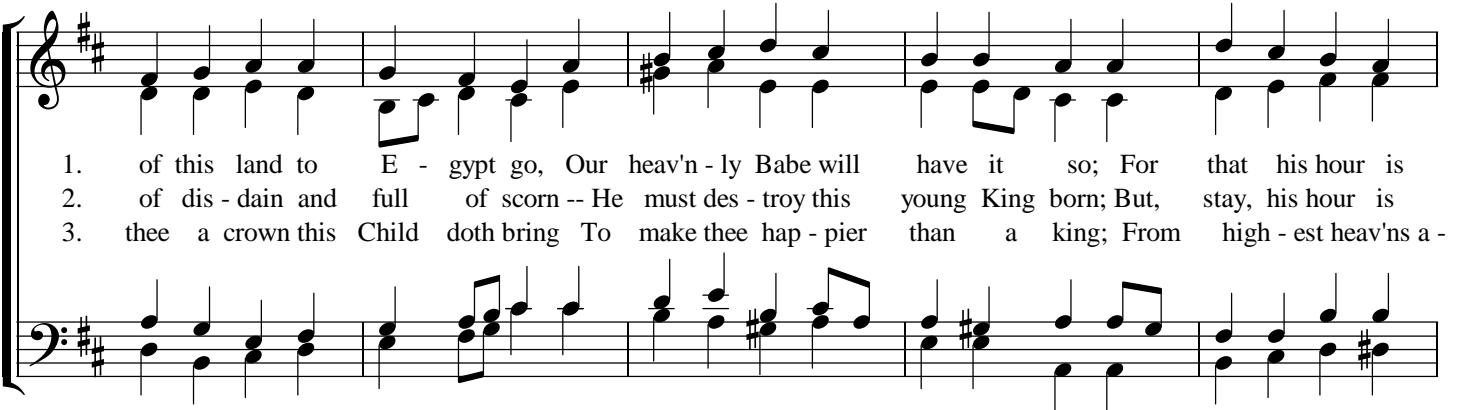

Johann Herman Schein (1586-1630) harm. J. S. Bach

1

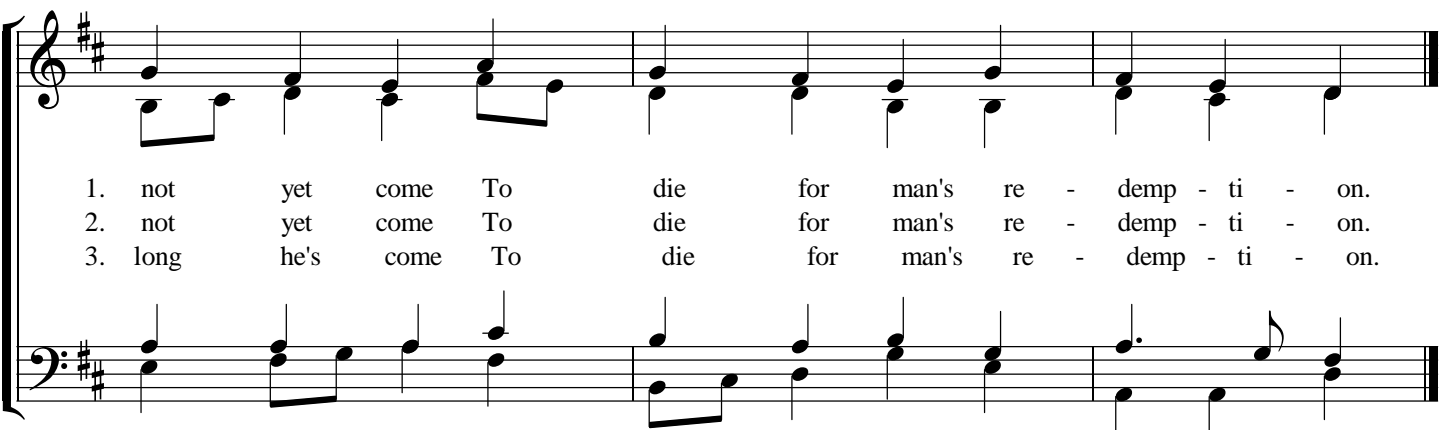

1. The an - gel saith to Jo - seph mild, Fly with the Mo - ther and the Child, Out
2. Proud He - rod, he doth froth and frown, Fear - reth to lose king - dom and crown; Full
3. He - rod, for - bear this cru - el flood, Of the most pure in - no - cent blood, To

5

1. of this land to E - gypt go, Our heav'n - ly Babe will have it so; For that his hour is
2. of dis - dain and full of scorn -- He must des - troy this young King born; But, stay, his hour is
3. thee a crown this Child doth bring To make thee hap - pier than a king; From high - est heav'ns a -

10

1. not yet come To die for man's re - demp - ti - on.
2. not yet come To die for man's re - demp - ti - on.
3. long he's come To die for man's re - demp - ti - on.