

The birth of King Immanuel

John Reist (1758-1816)

BECCLES, L.M.
Charles Gall, 1625.

1. The birth of King Im - man - u - el Doth ev - ery birth on earth ex - cel; His
2. Im - man - u - el, thine is the crown -- Great is thy name and thy re-nown; Let
3. Then joy on earth was sweet and great, To see him come who all things made; And
4. The Lord through whom the earth was made, On earth was in a man - ger laid; God's
5. A new cre - a - tion now on earth Im - man - uel made by the new birth; The

The second system of musical notation continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system, featuring a treble and bass clef with a common time signature. The lyrics are aligned with the notes.

1. glo - ry filled the earth so rare, His heaven - ly ves - ture wore a star.
2. all the an - gels wor - ship thee, Like - wise all souls by thee set free.
3. by the Fa - ther's will be born, Who sent him all things to re - form.
4. ho - ly word was pro - ved true, Through which he mak - eth all things new.
5. dy - ing sin - ner's place he took, That all to him for grace must look.

The fourth system of musical notation concludes the piece, showing the final notes of the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are aligned with the notes.