

All hail! happy day

Charles Wesley (1707-1788)

"ROWLEY," 5.6.9.D.
Lowell Mason (1792-1872)

1

1. All hail! hap - py day, When en - robed in our clay, The Re -
2. Ye an - gels of God, Sound his prai - ses a - broad, And ac -
3. O may the re - turn Of this once bles - sed morn, Be for -
4. Let ec - ho pro - long The har - mo - ni - ous song, -- Hal - le -

5

1. dee - mer ap - peared up - on earth; How can we re - frain To u -
2. know - ledge him JAH, the I AM: We al - so will join In a
3. ev - er re - mem - bered with joy: Sweet ac - cents of praise All our
4. lu - jahs a - gain and a - gain: He kin - dles the fire, Whom the

10

1. nite in the strain, And to hail our Im - man - u - el's
2. hymn so di - vine, Giv - ing glo - ry to God and the
3. voi - ces shall raise; Hal - le - lu - jahs shall be our em -
4. na - tions de - sire, And to him we de - vote the glad

14

1. birth! And to hail our Im - man - u - el's birth!
2. Lamb! Giv - ing glo - ry to God and the Lamb!
3. ploy! Hal - le - lu - jahs shall be our em - ploy!
4. strain. And to him we de - vote the glad strain.