

Awake, awake, arise, and hail the glorious morn

LENOX, 6.6.6.6.8.8.

John Needham (d. 1786)

Lewis Edson (1748-1820)

1. A - wake. a - wake, a - rise, And hail the glo-rious morn; Hark how the an - gels
2. He mor-tals came to save From sin's tyr-an - nic power; Come, with the an - gels
3. The pro-phe-cies and types Are all this day ful - filled; With east-ern sa - ges
4. Glo - ry to God on high, For our Em - man - uel's birth; To mor - tal men good

1. sing, "To you a Sa-viour's born!" Now let our hearts in con-cert move, And ev-ery tongue be
2. sing At this au-spic-ious hour; Let ev-ery heart and tongue com-bine, To praise the love, the
3. join To praise this won-drous Child: God's on-ly Son is come to bless The earth with peace and
4. will, And peace and joy on earth; With an-gels now we will re-peat Their songs, still new and

1. tuned to love, And ev - ery tongue be tuned to love.
2. grace di - vine, To praise the love, the grace di - vine.
3. right - eous - ness, The earth with peace and right - eous - ness.
4. ev - er sweet, Their songs, still new and ev - er sweet.