As Joseph was a-walking, he heard an angel sing; "This night shall be the birthnight Of Christ our heav'nly King. His birth-bed shall be neither In housen nor in hall, Nor in the place of paradise, But in an oxen's stall. He neither shall be rockèd In silver nor in gold, But in the wooden manger that lieth on the mould. He neither shall be clothèd In pur-ple nor in pall, But in the fine white li - nen, That u - sen ba-bies all." As Jo - seph was a walk - ing, Thus did the an-gels sing, And Ma - ry's Son at mid - night Was born to be our King. Then be you glad, good peo-ple, At this time of the year, And light you up your can - dles, For his star it shi - neth clear."
