

Listen, Lordlings, unto me

Traditional English Carol

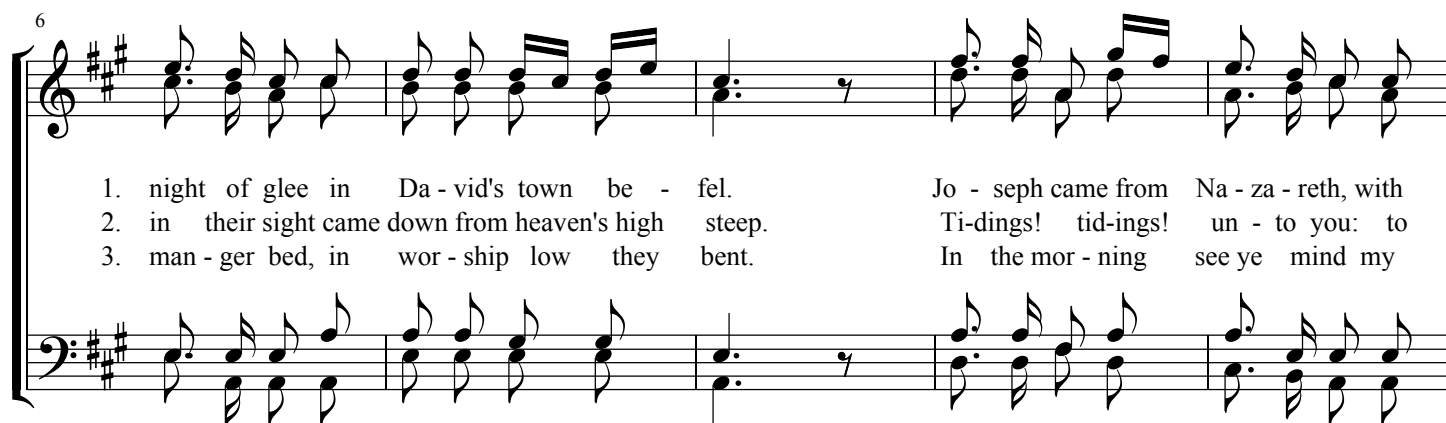

George Laurie Osgood (1844-1922)

1

1. Lis-ten, Lord-lings, un - to me, a tale I will you tell; Which, as on this
2. Shep-herds lay a - field that night to keep the sil - ly sheep, Hosts of an - gels
3. On-ward then the shep-herds sped, the shep-herds on - ward went, God was in his

6

1. night of glee in Da - vid's town be - fel. Jo - seph came from Na - za - reth, with
2. in their sight came down from heaven's high steep. Ti-dings! tid-ings! un - to you: to
3. man - ger bed, in wor - ship low they bent. In the mor - ning see ye mind my

11

1. Ma - ry, that sweet maid: Wea - ry were they, nigh to death, and for a lod - ging
2. you a Child is born, Pu - rer than the drops of dew and brigh-ter than the
3. mas-ters one and all, At the al - tar him to find, who lay wi - thin the

16

1. prayed, And for a lod - ging prayed.
 2. morn, And brigh - ter than the morn.
 3. stall, Who lay with - in the stall.

CHORUS:
 Sing high, sing high, sing low, sing low, Sing

21

high, sing low, sing to and fro. Go, tell it out with speed, Go, tell it out with 26

speed, Cry out, cry out and shout, all round a-bout, Cry out and shout all

Cry out, cry out, cry out - - - -

31

Cry out that Christ is born in - round a-bout, Go tell it out, go tell it out Cry out that Christ is born in - Cry out that Christ is born in -

Cry out that Christ is born in -

37

That Christ is deed. That Christ is born, that Christ is born, is That Christ is born, that Christ is born, is born, is That Christ is born, that Christ is born, is 43

born, - - is born in - deed.

born, is born, is born in - deed.
born, - is born in - deed.
born, is born, is born in - deed.