

Good Christians, rise, this is the morn

Stanza 1: Traditional, collected by Washington Irving (1783-1859)

Stanzas 2-6: Nathan Bouton Warren (1815-1898)

Nathan Bouton Warren (1815-1898)

1

1. Good Christ - ians, rise, this is the morn When Christ our Sa - viour, he was born, All
2. There pil - grims, who in coun - tries far Had seen by night Christ's na - tal star, Now,
3. Then rise, good Christ - ians, rise and sing Ho - san - nas to the new - born King, And
4. Now blaz - ing yule - logs crown the hearth, Dif - fus - ing warmth with light and mirth; Now
5. Now hol - ly boughs be - deck the wall, In low - ly cot and lof - ty hall; Now

5

CHORUS.

1. in a sta - ble so low - ly, At Beth - le - hem in Ga - li - lee.
2. low - ly bend - ing pre - sents bring, An of - fering to their God and King.
3. with an - gel - ic hosts a - bove Pro - claim to earth God's per - fect love. Re -
4. oft the Christ - mas tale is told, Of Christ - mas deeds in times of old.
5. Christ - mas ram - bles, quaint and rare, Di - vert the sad and ban - ish care.

9

joice! our Sa - viour, he was born on Christ - mas day, in the morn - ing.

6. Then open wide the stately hall,
And banquet spread for great and small;
And we, with garlands gay, will bring
The tuneful harp, and ever sing.
Rejoice! our Saviour, &c.