

Christmas morn has come once more

Text: Anonymous

Music: Charles Henry Whittier (1850-1929)

1

1. Christ-mas morn has come once more, And we sing a song of praise; Christ the Lord was born to -
2. Sing we all of him who came, Low-ly to a man-ger bed; He who was the King of
3. Yet he came in love and grace, To re-deem this world of ours; He was born on Christ-mas
4. Let us keep this day with joy, Send-ing gifts and ma-king mirth; For his sake, who long a -

6

1. day, Let us all our voi-ces raise, Let us all our voi-ces raise.
2. kings. Had no room to lay his head, Had no room to raise his head.
3. day. Let us sing with all our powers, Let us sing with all our powers.
4. go, Came on Christ-mas day to earth, Came on Christ-mas day to earth.