

A star is in the western sky

William Wye Smith (1827-1917)

Erasmus Manford Clark (1843-1923)

1

1. A star is in the west - ern sky, How love - ly is its
2. I found the bless - ed Lord had come To save a world of
3. Nor from the east nor west a - lone Shall hearts be led to

4

1. light! And with its glo - ry beam - ing eye, It sets not all the
2. woe; A Babe with - in a hum - ble home, Yet King of all be -
3. thee, But they shall come, thy Name to own, From ev - ery land and

8

1. night. I must a - way, I can - not stay, It leads me from a - far! I
2. low. With love un - told, I gave him gold, And gifts I brought from far. As
3. sea. O bright - ly rise, and let our eyes Be - hold thee from a - far. The

13

1. fol - low thee by night and day, O bright and won - drous Star.
2. o'er my soul thy glo - ry rolled, Sal - va - tion's ris - en Star!
3. truth that makes the na - tions wise, The bright and Morn - ing Star!