

Alleluia! Dawns the Dayspring from on high

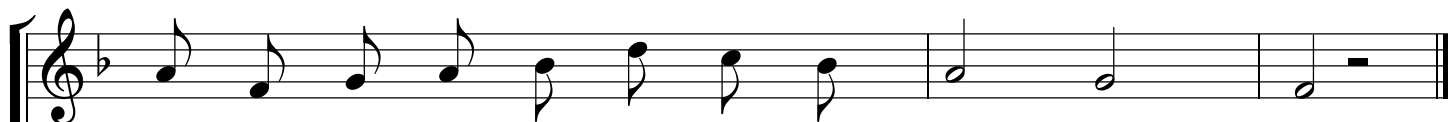

Sung by William Walton and the Adderbury Waits
Collected by Janet Blunt (1859-1950), November 9, 1916

1. Al - le - lu - ia! Dawns the Day-spring from on high. Al - le - lu - ia! Lo! the mid-night
2. Al - le - lu - ia! Shep-herds first glad tid - ings hear. Al - le - lu - ia! An-gels' songs re -
3. Al - le - lu - ia! An - gels' songs tri - umph - ant fill. Al - le - lu - ia! High-est heaven's e -

1. sha-dows fly. Al - le - lu - ia! 'Tis Mes - si - ah's Ad - vent near.
2. buke their fear. Al - le - lu - ia! See the shin - ing he - rald nigh.
3. ter - nal hill. Al - le - lu - ia! They re-sound God's glo - ry still.

1. Al - le - lu - ia! Born of Da - vid's line is there.
2. Al - le - lu - ia! Hark glad tid - ings from the sky.
3. Al - le - lu - ia! Peace on earth, to man good - will.

