

High let us swell our tuneful notes

Philip Doddridge (1702-1751)

Noted by Janet Blunt from William Walton of Adderbury

1. High let us swell our tune - ful
2. Good - will to sin - ful man is
3. Glo - ry to God in high - est

1. notes And join th' an - gel - ic throng,
2. shown, And peace on earth is given,
3. strains, In high - est worlds be paid,

1. And join th' an - gel - ic
2. And peace on earth is
3. In high - est worlds be

1. throng,
2. given.
3. paid.

For an - gels no such
For lo! th' In - car - nate
His glo - ry by our

1. love hath known, To wake a cheer - ful
2. Sa - viour comes With mes - sag - es from
3. lips pro - claimed And by our lives dis -

1. song, To wake a cheer - ful song, For
2. heaven, With mes - sag - es from heaven, For
3. played, And by our lives dis - played, His

1. an - gels no such love hath known, To wake a cheer-ful song.
 2. lo! th' In - car - nate Sa - viour comes With mes - sag-es from heaven.
 3. glo - ry by our lips pro-claimed And by our lives dis - played.