

Behold! once more the day is come (Roadwater)

Collected by Walter Lile (b. 1853) of Roadwater

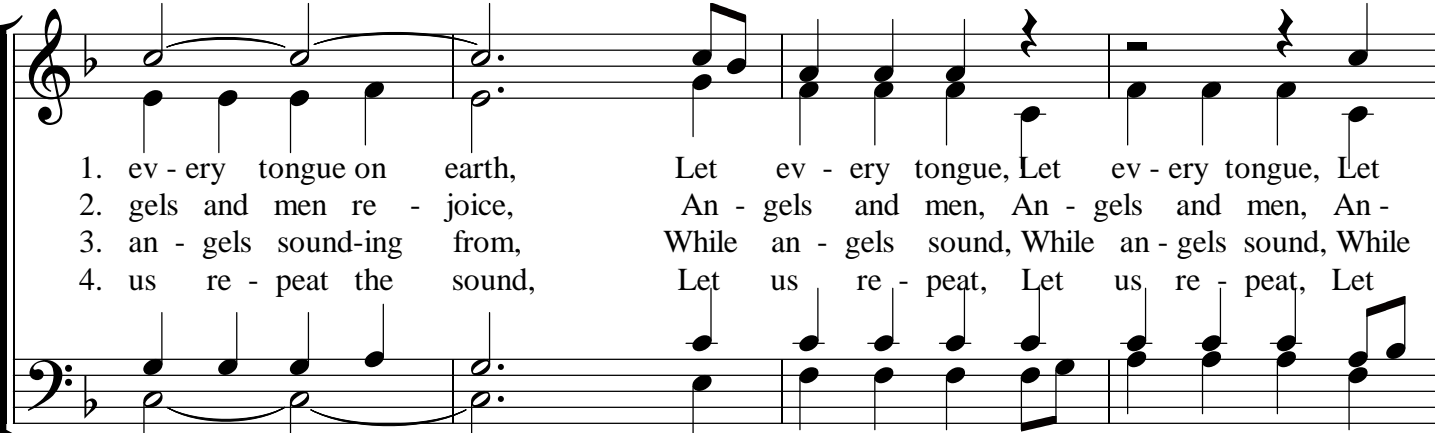

1. Be - hold! once more the day is come, That great and glo - rious
2. Hail, hap - py morn and glo - rious day! Let peace sur-round the
3. Come, let us join with heart and voice To sing our Sa - viour's
4. Glo - ry to God and peace on earth The heaven - ly choir did

1. morn;
2. earth,
3. birth,
4. sing;
Let ev - ery tongue on earth re - joice, Let An - gels and men re - joice and sing, An - While an - gels sound - ing from a - bove, While Let us re - peat the sound a - gain, Let ev - - - - - ery tongue on earth, &c.

1. ev - ery tongue on earth, Let ev - ery tongue, Let ev - ery tongue, Let
2. gels and men re - joice, An - gels and men, An - gels and men, An -
3. an - gels sound - ing from, While an - gels sound, While an - gels sound, While
4. us re - peat the sound, Let us re - peat, Let us re - peat, Let

ev - - - - - ery tongue on earth, &c.

1. ev - ery tongue on earth re - joice For
 2. gels and men re - joice and sing At
 3. an - gels sound - ing from a - bove, Let's
 4. us re - peat the sound a - gain, And

1. Christ the Lord is born, For Christ the
 2. our Re - deem - er's birth, At our Re -
 3. i - mi - tate on earth, Let's i - mi -
 4. hail the new - born King, And hail the

1. Lord is born. born.
 2. deem - er's birth. birth.
 3. tate on earth. earth.
 4. new - born King. King.

Let, &c.