

What will the harvest be?

Emily Sullivan Oakey (1829-1883)

William Howard Doane (1832-1915)

1. They are sow - ing their seed in the dawn-light fair; They are sow - ing seed in the
 2. They are sow - ing their seed of word and deed, Which the cold know not, nor the
 3. They are sow - ing the seed of no - ble deed, With a sleep-less watch and an
 4. Sown in dark ness, or sown in light; Sown in weak- ness, or

1. noon-day's glare; They are sow-ing their seed in the soft twi - light; They are sow-ing their seed in the
 2. care - less heed; Oh! the gen - tle word and the kind -ly deed, That have bless-ed the heart in its
 3. ear - nest heed; With a cease-less hand on the earth they sow, And the fields are whit-en - ing wher -
 4. sown in might; Sown in meek-ness or sown in wrath; In the broad-world field or the

1. sol - emn night. What will the har - vest be? What will the har - vest
 2. sor - est need. Sweet will the har - vest be, Sweet will the har - vest
 3. 'er they go. Rich will the har - vest be, Rich will the har - vest
 4. shad -'wy path: Sure will the har - vest be, Sure will the har - vest

1. be? What will the har - vest be?
 2. be, Sweet will the har - vest be,
 3. be, Rich will the har - vest be,
 4. be, Sure will the har - vest be,

1. What will the har - vest be?
 2. Sweet will the har - vest be.
 3. Rich will the har - vest be.
 4. Sure will the har - vest be.