

O North, with all thy vales of green

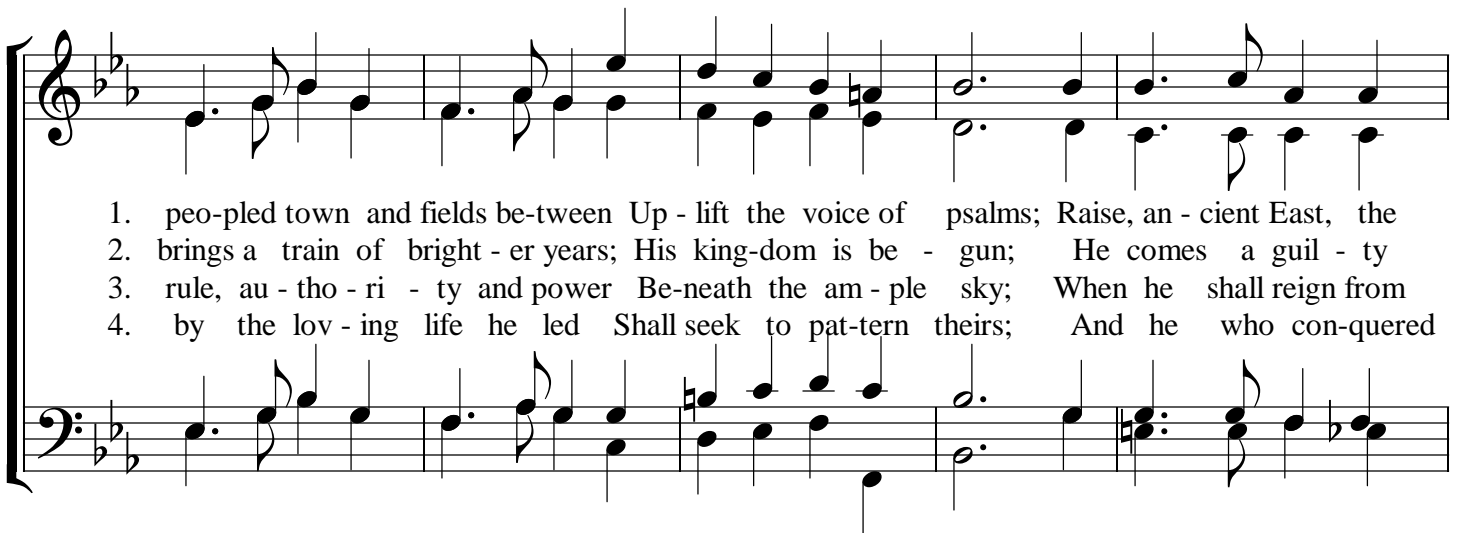

"MEIRINGEN," 8.6. 8.6. 8.8.

William Cullen Bryant (1794-1878)

Christian Gottlob Leefe (1748-1798)

1. O North, with all thy vales of green, O South, with all thy palms, From
2. Lo! in the clouds of heaven ap-pears God's well - be - lov - ed Son; He
3. O Fa - ther, haste the pro mised hour When at his feet shall be All
4. When all shall heed the words he said A - mid their dai - ly cares, And

1. peo-pled town and fields be-tween Up - lift the voice of psalms; Raise, an - cient East, the
2. brings a train of bright - er years; His king-dom is be - gun; He comes a guil - ty
3. rule, au - tho - ri - ty and power Be-neath the am - ple sky; When he shall reign from
4. by the lov - ing life he led Shall seek to pat-tern theirs; And he who con-querer

1. an - them high, And let the youth - ful West re - ply.
2. world to bless With mer - cy, truth and right - eous - ness.
3. pole to pole, The Lord of ev - ery hu - man soul.
4. death shall win The no - bler con - quest o - ver sin.